¹ Academic Senate. The Academic Senate contributes to defining the University's policies, strategies and development plans. It formulates mandatory proposals and opinions on matters relating to teaching, research and student services. It coordinates and works with Departments and any teaching coordination bodies, as well as ruling on any disputes.

² Board of Governors. The Board of Governors is responsible for matters relating to the strategic direction and development of the University, with consideration to the proposals and opinions of the Academic Senate and in respect to the prerogatives of teaching and research bodies.

³ Student Council. The Student council is the body responsible for the independent organisation of students at the University, as well as for sharing information of interest to students.

⁴ Evaluation Committee. The Evaluation Committee is the University's body for evaluating its teaching, research and administrative activities.

⁵ University Sport Committee. The University Sport Committee coordinates and promotes sporting activities for students and university staff, supervises the running of sports facilities and the use of the economic and financial resources allocated to these, fulfils all other roles attributed to it by the relevant legislation.

⁶ Department Council. The Departmental Council is the governing body of each Department

⁷ Interdepartmental School Councils. The School of Economics and Statistics and the School of Science encompass various different Departments and coordinate teaching activities and shared services.

⁸ Teaching Coordination Council. The Teaching Coordination Council supervises the management of the Bachelor's and Master's Degree courses relating to the Department

WHO HAS THE RIGHT TO VOTE?

The students entitled to vote for the above-mentioned bodies are those enrolled in the 2023/2024 academic year, whether they have or have not completed exams within the prescribed period, namely the students enrolled in:

- a) Bachelor Degree
- b) Master Degree
- c) Single-cycle Master degree
- d) Degree or Diploma courses
- e) Doctoral degree (PhD) (but they can only vote for: Senato Accademico, Consiglio di amministrazione, Nucleo di Valutazione and Consigli di Scuola interdipartimentale).

Students are considered enrolled if they have paid all due academic tuition and fees (i.e. First installment down payment).

Also, students having the status "in ipotesi" have the right to vote, as long as they comply with the above-mentioned condition.

The list of eligible voters will be published on the Student Elections page of the University website by November 2nd, 2023.

WHO CAN OR CANNOT BE ELECTED

All current students can be elected as long as they have an active right to vote, except:

- a) students who have criminal convictions or pending charges
- b) students who are currently suspended for a disciplinary sanction
- c) students who have been enrolled for more than one year beyond the set period ("fuori corso").

Students having the status "in ipotesi" can also be elected.

LISTS AND REGISTRATIONS

Student Lists can be registered from 9:00 October 16th to 15:00 October 30th 2023.

From 9:00 October 31st to 15:00 November 10th, 2023, students can sign to support only one of the students' lists among those available.

Anyone who does not have the right to vote in elections cannot be a supporter.
