

INTERNATIONAL LAW CASES I

I Semester, Professor Laura Westra (lwestra@interlog.com)

24 hours – Cfu: 3

This course focuses on the international protection of environment through human rights law. Several law cases, which have contributed to the development of this matter, will be studied and discussed during the course.

The course material will be available on the Professor Westra's webpage of this website, before the start of the course.

Workload: At Class 7, Brief Paper Outline and Bibliography of Proposed Final Paper. At date to be arranged, a Final Paper, reading one of the issues proposed, after Outline has been approved.

Laura Westra (Professor Emerita, University of Windsor, Philosophy Department, Barbara B. and Bertram J. Cohn, Professor in Environmental Studies, Sarah Lawrence College) has two PhDs in Philosophy and Law. She is teaching Environmental Law at the University of Windsor (CA), where she taught, among others, Environmental Ethics, Political Philosophy and Institutional Violence. Professor Westra taught, also at the Osgoode Hall Law School, York University (CA), Business and Society.