EXEMPTION FROM THE UNIVERSITY FEES

In case of any doubts about the meaning of the text, refer to the Italian version.

For the 2022/2023 academic year the University of Milano-Bicocca provides for total or partial exemptions from University Contribution for the students enrolled in:
- Bachelor’s degree, single-cycle master's degree;
- master's degree;

Requests for exemption must be submitted using the Online Student Registry (Student Services Online) between January 30 2023 and February 28 2023, according to the procedure described throughout this guide at points 4 and 5.

There are no cases of exemption from paying the 16,00 Euros stamp duty for the enrollment in the academic year, while exemption from paying the 140 Euros Regional Tax is intended only for students with recognition of disability pursuant to article 3, paragraph 1 or 3, of the law n. 104 of 5 February 1992, or for students with a disability of 66% or more.

3 - GENERAL REQUIREMENTS VALID FOR ALL TYPES OF EXEMPTION

- These students cannot benefit from any type of exemption:
  - students, enrolled in a first level or second level degree course, who are already in possession of a degree qualification or a university qualification prior the reform, with the exception of students with recognition of disability pursuant to article 3, paragraph 1 or 3, of the law n. 104 of 5 February 1992, or students with a disability of 66% or more;
  - students enrolled in medical Specialisation Schools.

- These students cannot benefit from exemptions regulated by the University: (exemptions for: merit, working students, students of the same household, disability between 45% and 65%, students employed in the University):
  - students enrolled in a distance learning degree course and part-time students;
  - students enrolled in Maters courses, in advanced and educational courses;
  - students enrolled in Ph.D programs;
  - students enrolled in Specialisation Schools different than medical.
NB: the first three points do not apply to exemption for students with recognition of disability pursuant to article 3, paragraph 1 or 3, of the law n. 104 of 5 February 1992, or students with a disability of 66% or more. These students can request the exemption for disability even if they are enrolled in the above-mentioned courses.

- students who have made a transfer from another University cannot benefit from the same type of exemption for the same year of studies;
- students who have achieved only a bachelor’s degree and who enroll for the first time in a master’s degree can request the exemption;
- ECCLESIASTICS must deliver a declaration from the religious community to which they belong, with a certificate of the difficult economic condition of that community.

4 – PROCEDURE TO REQUEST THE EXEMPTION

Automatic exemption

These students do not have to submit the request:

- beneficiaries of scholarship (University Scholarship and DS scholarship);
- beneficiaries of DS honor loans;
- students eligible for the DS scholarship who do not succeed in winning a scholarship due to lack of funds;
- beneficiaries of scholarship (University Scholarship and DS scholarship) and students eligible for the DS scholarship who are not entitled to receive the payment of the second installment;
- students incarcerated in Lombardy penitentiaries (it is only necessary to complete the registration procedure indicated by student secretariats).

Types of exemption that require the submission of the application:

- total exemption for beneficiaries of Ministry of Foreign Affairs scholarship (MAE);
- exemption for merit;
- exemption for students with disabilities (read the guide at point 5 to learn more about the particular procedure for this type of exemption);
- exemption for students with a disability between 45% and 65%;
- exemption for students of the same household enrolled in the 2022/2023 academic year in the University of Milano-Bicocca;
- exemption for working students;
- exemption for students employed in the University of Milano-Bicocca.

METHOD TO SUBMIT THE APPLICATION

To submit the application the student must:

- have an ISEE certification that is already registered in the Online Student Registry (Student Services Online);
- have already paid for the 2022/2023 academic year all the university fees with the deadline expired before the request of the exemption;
- have filled in the questionnaire available at the "Exemptions" section of the Online Student Registry (it is possible to complete the questionnaire only during the period established for the submission of the application).

Procedure to submit the application:

1. access the Online Student Registry (Student Services Online) and log in by entering the data required for identification;
2. access the Exemption section. The procedure automatically and preliminarily checks for the presence of the ISEE declaration and the completion of the questionnaire;
3. fill in the questionnaire if it has not been completed yet. If the ISEE is missing, contact segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it;
4. after the completion of the questionnaire, the button “check for the possible exemptions” will be available. By clicking this button, the most advantageous exemption, based on the income and merit requirements and on the administrative status, will be automatically assigned to the student. Any other combinable exemption based on the information resulting from the questionnaire will be assigned as well. If the student does not meet the requirements, the application will be rejected and will be considered as not submitted;
5. print or save the receipt of the submitted application.

Students who could not submit the application on the web by February 27 2023 will have the possibility of submitting it by February 28 2023 using the PDF form that must be sent to segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it, using the campus e-mail address. In this case, copies of the required documents must be attached to the application for the evaluation.

5 – PROCEDURE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES pursuant to article 3, paragraph 1 or 3, of the law n. 104 of 5 February 1992, or disabilities of 66% or more

ENROLLED IN THE FIRST YEAR IN A.Y. 2022/2023
During the enrollment, students with the above-mentioned disability recognition can immediately request a total exemption from the payment of the University Contribution and the Regional Tax by declaring their condition of disability.
In this case, the exemption is automatically assigned by the system without verifying any merit and income requirements. The PagoPa payment notice will include only the € 16.00 stamp duty.
Within 10 days from the enrollment date, students must attach in the Online Student Registry (Student Services Online) a copy of the medical report with the percentage of invalidity or recognition of the disability pursuant to article 3, paragraph 1 or 3, of the law n. 104.
Students who cannot upload the medical report by the above-mentioned deadline will have to deliver a PFD copy to segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it, using the campus e-mail address.

ENROLLED IN SECOND AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS IN A.Y. 2022/2023
Students enrolled in second and subsequent years:
- who have benefited from this type of exemption in a.y. 2021/2022: they do not have to send any other exemption request, because the system will assign the same type of the exemption after the enrolment in the academic year. Any changes in the type or percentage of the previously certified disability must be reported to segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it
- who have NOT benefited from this type of exemption in a.y. 2021/2022: to obtain this exemption they can contact Student Services – Fees and Funding Sector (writing to the e-mail address segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it) when they enroll in the academic year and fill in the appropriate form. This procedure will allow them to immediately obtain exemption and tax reduction.

The office will perform a spot-check on the possession of the requirements for the benefit.
6 – DOCUMENTS DELIVERY

Any required documents are indicated in the receipt available after the submission of the application, that must be printed by the student. The documents must be delivered in a PDF copy to segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it, using the campus e-mail address, within 10 days from the submission date (the only exception is the CU declaration for the working students, who must send it as soon as it available). The Office has the right to request any document necessary for a better evaluation of the exemption request.

7 - APPEALS

The student can check the results of the exemption request in the “Exemption” section of Online Student Registry (Student Services Online).

In case of rejection of the request for exemption, the student can present a documented appeal to the Rector of the University within 30 days from the deadline for submitting applications.

In the event of an appeal regarding the merit requirements, the student who has not followed the official study plan must deliver a copy of the individual study plan approved for the 2021/2022 academic year.

The appeal can be presented using the “Esposto” form which must to be sent to protocollo@unimib.it and segr.studenti.tasse@unimib.it using the campus e-mail address, attaching the documents that demonstrate the reasons and the arguments of the appeal.

The deadline and the procedure for the appeal are mandatory.
