CURRICULUM VITAE OF ELISABETTA RUSPINI

(JUNE 2020)

<https://unire.unimib.it/en/>

2017-present: Proponent and National Coordinator of the Framework Convention “Gender and Religion”. The Framework Convention is a confederation of around 30 Universities across Italy and 15 Research Centres/Associations located all over the country which banded together to study the nexus between gender, religion and social change. The FC was signed by all parties on March 2, 2018 (protocol number 0014539/18, University of Milano-Bicocca). The first common activity is the National Survey “Young People and Religion” aimed to investigate religious attitudes among Italian university students and to understand how Millennial women and men can contribute to interfaith dialogue. The survey was carried out in a number of Italian Universities: more than 10,000 questionnaires have already been collected.

2017-2020: Co-Investigator, International Project Title: “Pregnant Men: An International Exploration of Trans Male Experiences and Practices of Reproduction”, Lead Research Organization: University of Leeds, Department: Sociology & Social Policy; Project Reference: ES/N019067/1, Funded period April 2017-March 2020, Funder ESRC: Sally Hines (Principal Investigator); Damien Riggs (Co-Investigator); Francis Ray White (Co-Investigator); Carla A.
