Useful Information

Aveiro

Aveiro is a dynamic, mid-size city. It has about 75.000 residents and offers much of what characterises the big cities.

Aveiro is both a prosperous city of commerce and services, as well as a centre of culture and leisure, located in a region of high industrial development.

Art Nouveau, an architectural and decorative style evolving at the end of 19th century characterises many of the buildings in Aveiro, making the riverfront an impressive array of art nouveau history. This display of unique architecture in combination to the colourful handcrafted boats (spot the suggestive motives on the helm), the 'moliceiros', that travel through the lagoon canals, make the city known as the 'Portuguese Venice'. The Aveiro Lagoon, the salt-pans, the extensive beaches just a few minutes way and the numerous green spaces are marks of a young and dynamic city with much to offer to its visitors.

The UA

The University of Aveiro is a centre for education and innovation, a trigger and driving force for regional development and wealth creation

The University of Aveiro is a public institution with the mission of intervening and developing graduate and post-graduate degrees, research and cooperation with society.

Created in 1973, it has rapidly transformed itself into one of the most dynamic and innovative universities in the country. Attended by about 13.000 students of graduate and post-graduate courses, University of Aveiro assumes an extremely relevant role in the Portuguese academic context, positioned in a leading role regarding the quality of the provided infrastructures, the quality of the produced research and the excellence of the teaching staff.

UA is a privileged partner of enterprises and other national and international entities, with which it co-operates through several projects and programs and to whom it provides important services, constituting in this way, a research space where innovative products and solutions that contribute to the advancement of science and technology are developed.

The Campus

The GEM Europe 2019 Summer School will be held at the Campus of Santiago, Aveiro, located alongside the Aveiro Lagoon margins. A point where Arts, Science and Culture meet, the Campus welcomes not only national and international scientific conferences, but also exhibitions and creations of an artistic nature.

The Campus includes a number of buildings designed by nationally and internationally recognized architects. The university holds permanent exhibitions of contemporary Portuguese architecture, and is visited annually by numerous large numbers of people.

Santiago Campus has buildings designed for teaching and researching, students' and teachers' residences, canteens and bars, a bookstore, lecture theatres for conferences and entertainment shows, exhibition galleries, sports' pavilions, athletics tracks, laundries, post-office, nursery, banks and shops, all inside a Campus surrounded by the natural beauty of centuries-old salt-pans and located just a few minutes from the city centre.

How to reach UA

flying to Portugal

The closest airport is Francisco Sá Carneiro International Airport in Oporto (www.aeroportoporto.pt/pt/opo/home), located some 70 kms to the north of Aveiro. Portela International Airport in Lisbon is located 250 kms south of Aveiro.

» from Oporto airport

The trip between the airport and the railway station (called Porto-Campanhã), which has direct rail connections to Aveiro, can be done by taxi for around 20€ and takes around 30 minutes. A less expensive way to reach the Porto-Campanhã railway station is to use the Metro (www.metroporto.pt/), which has a terminal at the airport. The trips between the airport and the railway station take about 32 minutes and the ticket costs 1.85€ (Z4 ticket). The train journey to Aveiro from Porto Campanhã takes between 40 minutes and 1h15, depending on the type of train used (Cost of the local train: €3.40 one-way). There are regular trains to Aveiro from Porto . Timetables can be found online at www.cp.pt/passageiros/en.

» from Lisbon airport

If you're arriving by plane, the simplest form of transport to Aveiro is by train from Lisboa-Oriente railway station. The journey from Lisbon to Aveiro is 2-2.5hours, depending what type of train you take (Cost: €20-26 one-way). To get to the train station, you can go by Metro (Red Line); the ticket costs 1.40 €. By taxi, it takes about 10 minutes and costs around 10€. You can also take a bus (lines 5 and 44). Train timetables can be found online. Timetables can be found online at www.metrolisboa.pt/.

arriving by train

Aveiro railway station is located about 20 minutes walking distance or 5 minutes taxi ride from the University Campus. You can find taxis waiting outside the Aveiro train station. See how to reach the University of Aveiro in the city map. To reach the Campus, you can also use the bus line 4 (www.aveirobus.pt/) which departs at regular intervals from outside the railway station.

arriving by car

From the north, using the A1 motorway, or from the east, take the IP5/A25 and follow in the direction of Lisbon . Exit the A1 in the direction of Aveiro and take the IP5/A25. There are two exits to the city from the IP5/A25, first "Aveiro-Norte" and some kilometres further on, the "Aveiro" exit. This second exit is best for reaching the University of Aveiro (the University is near the hospital).

From the south, using the A1 motorway, follow in the direction of Porto. Exit the motorway at "Aveiro-Sul/Águeda" (exit 15) and follow the EN235 road directly to the University Campus (the University is near the hospital). From the south, using the A8 and A17 motorways, exit at "Aveiro-Sul" and follow the EN235 road directly to the University campus (the University is near the hospital).
